

From: LSU Law Building Announcements on behalf of Lee A Lockridge
<lockridge@LSU.EDU>
Sent: Thursday, August 27, 2020 2:56 PM
To: LAWCTR-ALRT-L
Subject: [LAWCTR-ALRT-L] Law Center to Open and Classes to Resume on Friday, August 28

Dear Law Center Community,

In keeping with the LSU announcement below, the Law Center will be open and classes and activities will be held as scheduled for Friday, August 28.

Please contact your professors and/or supervisors to let them know of your situation as soon as possible if you cannot participate in remote classes due to power or internet outages or if you are unable to travel safely to campus due to your own particular circumstances.

We hope you and your families continue to remain safe in the aftermath of this storm.

Lee Ann Wheelis Lockridge
Interim Dean
David Weston Robinson Professor of Law
McGlinchey Stafford Professor of Law
Louisiana State University Law Center
East Campus Drive
Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70803
www.law.lsu.edu

From: Broadcast_LSU_Staff On Behalf Of Division of Strategic Communications
Sent: Thursday, August 27, 2020 2:31 PM
To: Broadcast_LSU_Staff
Subject: LSU Open on Friday, Aug. 28

LSU will be open on Friday, Aug. 28. All classes and activities will be held as scheduled.

The University Laboratory School will also be open on Friday. Families with children at the LSU Early Childhood Education Laboratory Preschool will hear directly from the preschool in the coming hours as to their decision about tomorrow.

If you are unable to travel safely to campus due to your own particular circumstances, please contact your professors/supervisors to make them aware of your situation. For those without electricity or internet access tomorrow who cannot participate in remote classes or scheduled activities, please contact your professors/supervisors as soon as you can. Faculty and supervisors are asked to be flexible with students and employees who may have extenuating circumstances.

All of the Rapid COVID-19 Testing Centers on campus (purple PODs) will be open Friday. For information on locations, times, and how to set up an appointment, please visit lsu.edu/roadmap/health/testing.php.

Any further updates will be posted to lsu.edu and LSU's official social media channels.